

January 2025

Week 1

"Lord the light of your love is shining, in the midst of the darkness, shining"

Light a candle and practice Centering Prayer. How did your body feel before and how did you feel after time listening to God?

Week 2

"Mirrored here, may our lives tell your story"

Write something on your bathroom mirror that reminds you that you are a reflection of Christ. How did this note affect your day?

Week 3

"As we gaze on your kingly brightness, so our faces display your likeness"

Look for illuminators who bring out the best in others. What traits do illuminators share? What could you adopt in your life?

Week 4

"Blaze spirit blaze, set our heart on fire."

Share warmth (bonfire, soup, hot cocoa) with someone you don't often make time to listen to. What senses were engaged?

Meet Josh!

Director of Music and Communications at St. Mark's, Bowling Green

Isaiah 60 provides a perfect scripture for the upcoming season of Epiphany! This passage inspires the hymn Shine Jesus Shine with great lyrical content, scripture references, appropriate seasonal placement, and a celebratory gospel nature.”

The Lord is always revealing himself around us, sometimes we don't realize his presence in the moment. In recent years, I have become more aware of this constant presence in my life. I invite you to become more aware as well. Let the Lord's light shine in your life!
